Kick off and first model ICD-Conference (Conference on Intercultural Dialogue) in the course of the project weReurope - European Lifelong Learning by Intercultural Dialogue

Overcoming Borders – Getting along with Diversity

Venue: Österreichisches Museum für Volkskunde (Laudongasse 15-19, 1080 Wien)

The first model ICD-Conference (five in total) combines relevant content with the presentation and application of innovative (inter)active methods for

- ◆ Getting Acquainted
- ◆ Imparting Knowledge
- ◆ Collective Delivery of Outcomes as well as for
- ◆ Feedback and Evaluation

This ICD-Conference aims at generating a prolific dialogue, ranging thematically from the relevance of Intercultural Competence at a local level to the interaction between neighbouring countries (that may be divided by historical conflicts) to the impact of the Lisbon Treaty on lifelong learning in general and the access of marginalised groups to learning in particular.

Target audience: multipliers on national, regional and local level like government agencies, cultural institutions, (adult) education providers, labour market actors, Social partners as well as associations/clubs open to all citizens with a focus on intercultural dialogue.

Conference Languages: German and English (translation available)

We would like to invite you to participate in the first ICD-Conference in Vienna and will be providing you with further details concerning the conference programme and online-registration.

Participation is free.

Looking forward to seeing you at the conference!
